I. Old Business

a. Father/Daughter Dance – Friday, April 28th

- What a great turnout! Over 200 people attended!
- The addition of a photo booth this year was well received.
- A huge thank you to Melissa Blankenship and Melissa Rhynes for coordinating this favorite-of-many, school event.

b. 5th & 6th Grade Leadership Group

- Students Savannah Sailer, Ty Javier and Nicholas Tallon reported on their initiative to provide healthy snacks to the students on their first day of standardized testing.
- They distributed cheese sticks and Dove dark chocolate, along with inspirational messages to the test takers! An alternative snack was provided to those unable to have the initial offering. The group received many compliments & felt this was a big success!
- The group only spent about half of the $200 that the PBC allotted to the group. Way to go Leadership Group! We thank them and Mrs. Jill Lesch for their efforts!

c. Book Fair

- The book fair was a big hit, especially during father/daughter dance, bringing in $5698.
- A big thank you to Sue Barker and Vicki Harvat and everyone who volunteered!

d. Staff Appreciation Week

- Thanks to Christine Aicher for coordinating this spectacular week-long fun that is loved by all! Thanks to all the additional contributors as well.

e. North Lake School Night at Culver's – Tuesday, May 9th

- A big thank you to our teachers Mrs. Tarkowski and Mrs. Flannery for serving at Culver's and those who stopped by to purchase food!

II. On-Going Business

a. General Mills Box Tops for Education

- North Lake School box tops coordinator Pam Stelzner has discovered a Box Tops AP. Directions on how to get on board with this cool new tool were provided in The Wave, and will be repeated in future issues.
- The next box tops contest will be the end of the year raffle on Wednesday, June 7th, the last day of school. Keep saving those box tops all year long!

III. New/Current Business

a. Boosterthon Color Run / Fun Run – Friday, June 2nd

- Parent Hillary Lang is creating T-shirts for students which display our sponsors' logos.
- This school-wide fundraising event scheduled for June 2nd, will include a color run for 5th through 8th graders and a fun run for the younger grades. Several volunteers will be needed, therefore a Sign-Up Genius will be sent out to families.
- Christel Bennett volunteered to make decorations for students' lockers.
- All-school pep rally is scheduled for Wednesday, May 24th to kick off our biggest fundraiser of the year! More details will be available at that time.
- Some of the items allocated for purchase from funds collected include: upgrades to the STEM & computer labs, and school digital announcement centers.

b. End of the Year Raffle – Wednesday, June 7th (last day of school)

- Contact Christel Bennett if you are interested in working at the kids raffle or donating to the raffle.
- Raffle tickets will be available for purchase with $ or education box tops.

c. PBC Events Calendar 2017-18

- Dates were established for most of the PBC events scheduled for the 2017-18 school year.
- These dates will be provided to families in a letter which they will receive in their school registration packets this summer.
- Susan Schlett agreed to submit an updated draft family letter to Liesl Ackley and PBC members for review by the end of June 2017.

IV. Financial

- Treasurer Debbie Vorpapel reported that we currently have $14,921 in the PBC account.

V. Open Discussion

- Tonia Froling has volunteered to be the New Family Liaison for North Lake School.
- All current PBC members have agreed to continue in their respective positions for the 2017-18 school year.
- A gym request of twelve soccer balls was granted by the PBC.
- The group discussed the pros and cons to sending out The Wave school newsletter every week. Will most likely continue to be distributed every other week, with emphasis on referring to the school website for information.
- The PBC agreed to provide funds to Liesl Ackley, not to exceed $2000, to transfer student artwork to canvas for the purpose of decorating the conference room.

A heart felt thank you to all who are on, and support the PBC! Have a wonderful summer and we look forward to seeing you back at school for registration on Wednesday, August 23, 2017. In addition, please join us for a PBC Welcome Back Breakfast in the newly renovated library on the first day of school at 7:45 am!

Respectfully submitted,
