

SPECIAL INTEREST MATERIALS

7025

Commercial organizations offer many materials for use by teachers in the classroom. Some of these materials are of high educational value with little or no advertising emphasis. Other materials are primarily advertising and have only limited educational value.

In general, supplementary printed materials from commercial, political, religious, or other non-school sources, should have the approval of the District Administrator. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, that supplement and enrich test and reference book materials for definite school courses, that are timely and up-to-date, and that promote American democratic ideals and moral values.

Students may not be used as the agents for distributing non-school materials to the homes without the approval of the District Administrator.
